

Jerry Reeves Senior Vice President, Medical Affairs

Dr. Jerry Reeves is Senior Vice President of Medical Affairs for HealthInsight, where he is responsible for clinical oversight and guidance for the work performed. Dr. Reeves is very involved in the community, working with numerous providers and stakeholders to improve care in Nevada.

He chairs the Nevada Partnership for Value-driven Health Care (NPV), HealthInsightNevada's regional health improvement collaborative and AHRQ-designated Chartered Value Exchange. NPV priorities include improving the effectiveness and safety of care that Nevada patients receive through the implementation of interoperable health information technologies, data sharing, and incentive programs that promote better health, better care, and lower cost.

Dr. Reeves also chairs Nevada's multi-stakeholder Improving Diabetes and Obesity Outcomes (iDo) Council. Outside of HealthInsight, Dr. Reeves consults nationally on health benefits design, wellness and health management services for health plan sponsors and coalitions. He is principal and medical director of wellPORTAL LLC, a patient centered medical home network and chief health officer for consumer owned and operated (CO-OP) plans in South Carolina and Tennessee.

Dr. Reeves previously served as chief medical officer of Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees International Union (HEREIU) Welfare Funds, CEO and chairman of WorldDoc Inc., chief medical officer of Humana Inc. and Sierra Health Services Inc., and as chief of clinical medicine at USAF headquarters in Europe. He served two terms on the Board of Health of the State of Nevada and as associate dean, managed care, for University of Nevada School of Medicine.

He is board certified in pediatrics, pediatric hematology-oncology, and in medical management. He has authored more than 50 publications, been an editor for three professional journals, and served on the faculty of three medical schools.