

Harold D. Miller
Executive Director, Center for Healthcare Quality and Payment Reform
Former President and CEO, Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement

Harold D. Miller served as the President and CEO of the Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement until May 1, 2013. He organized the Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement's national Summits on Healthcare Payment Reform in 2007 and 2008. His report Creating Payment Systems to Accelerate Value-Driven Health Care: Issues and Options for Policy Reform which was prepared for the 2007 Summit was published by the Commonwealth Fund in September, 2007, and his summary of the recommendations from the 2008 Payment Reform Summit, From Volume to Value: Transforming Healthcare Payment and Delivery Systems to Improve Quality and Reduce Costs, was published in November 2008 by NRHI and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. His paper "From Volume to Value: Better Ways to Pay for Healthcare" appeared in the September 2009 issue of Health Affairs. He also authored the Center for Healthcare Quality and Payment Reform's reports How to Create Accountable Care Organizations and Transitioning to Accountable Care: Incremental Payment Reforms to Support Higher Quality, More Affordable Health Care, the Massachusetts Hospital Association's report Creating Accountable Care Organizations in Massachusetts, and the American Medical Association's report Pathways for Physician Success Under Healthcare Payment and Delivery Reforms.

Miller's work with the Pittsburgh Regional Health Initiative (PRHI) demonstrating the significant financial penalties that hospitals can face if they reduce hospital-acquired infections was featured in Modern Healthcare magazine in December, 2007. He designed and led a multi-year PRHI initiative to reduce preventable hospital admissions and readmissions through improved care for chronic disease patients. In 2007 and early 2008, he served as the Facilitator for the Minnesota Health Care Transformation Task Force, which prepared the recommendations that led to passage of Minnesota's path-breaking healthcare reform legislation in May, 2008. He is currently working with states and regions across the country to help them improve their healthcare payment and delivery systems.

Miller continues to serve as the Executive Director of the national Center for Healthcare Quality and Payment Reform, and as Adjunct Professor of Public Policy and Management at Carnegie Mellon University's Heinz School of Public Policy and Management, where he was Associate Dean from 1987-1992. In previous positions, Miller served as Director of the Pennsylvania Governor's Office of Policy Development, the President of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development, the Director of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Growth Alliance, and the Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Economy League of Southwestern Pennsylvania. Miller received his Master of Science in Public Policy and Management from Carnegie Mellon University.
