

Mylia Christensen

Chief Operating Officer

Mylia Christensen is the Chief Operating Officer and oversees operations and programs of HealthInsight. She is also the current Executive Director of HealthInsight Oregon. Before joining HealthInsight, Ms. Christensen was executive of the Oregon Healthcare Quality Corporation (Q Corp), an independent, nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the quality and affordability of health care in Oregon. Q Corp merged with HealthInsight in 2016. Mylia is the past Chair of the Board for Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement (NRHI), a national organization representing over 35 member Regional Health Improvement Collaboratives and current Chair of the NRHI Affordability Campaign .

Throughout her career, Ms. Christensen has worked in almost all facets of health care, from clinical settings to hospital and health care system management, strategic planning and administration. She served as national director for the Medicaid Evidence-based Decisions Project at Oregon Health & Science University's Center for Evidence-based Policy; administrator of the State of Oregon's Public Employees' Benefit Board; director of program development and physician services for Legacy Portland Hospital System; and administrator of women's health services at Good Samaritan Hospital. Ms. Christensen graduated from Southern Oregon College of Nursing and began her health care career as a registered nurse in emergency services and critical care.