

Barbra Rabson
Executive Director, Massachusetts Health Quality Partners

Barbra Rabson has been the Executive Director of Massachusetts Health Quality Partners (MHQP) since 1998. MHQP is a nationally recognized multi-stakeholder collaborative of health care providers, plans, consumers, government agencies, academics, and purchasers working together to promote measureable improvement in the quality of health care services in Massachusetts. Under Rabson's leadership, MHQP has become one of the most trusted names in performance measurement and public reporting of health care information in Massachusetts and in the nation.

Rabson was a founding member and the first Board Chair of the Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement (NRHI). She is the co-chair of the Greater Boston Aligning Forces for Quality Alliance, serves on the Board of the Massachusetts eHealth Collaborative (MAeHC), and serves on the Mayor of Boston's selection committee for the Mayoral Prize for Innovations in Primary Care. She received her Master of Public Health from Yale University and her undergraduate degree from Brandeis University.
