

APRIL 30, 2015 NATIONAL SUMMIT

Cost Transparency from the Ground Up

Join health care providers, large purchasers, state and national policy-makers, and Regional Health Improvement Collaboratives (RHICs) nationwide as the Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement (NRHI) and its five pilot RHICs disseminate the results of the Regional Total Cost of Care pilot, funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. The summit will feature partner organizations, and highlight national implications and replicability. The Summit will include a review of the pilot objectives, activities and results – how (and if) objectives were achieved - and anticipated (and unanticipated) challenges and their solutions.
